Papers in all areas on accreditation and education in engineering and computing are invited with a particular emphasis on:

1. Quality Assurance and Accreditation.
2. Teaching and Learning in Engineering and Computing Education.
3. Students and Professors' relationship with industry, government, society and academia
4. Students, professors and associated services.
5. Equity, Diversity and Inclusion.

Lima, Peru: The City of Kings, the noble title it holds to this day, Lima is growing as a metropolis in a fast and modern way. As the only capital city in the Americas located on the seashore, Lima is populous (more than 10 million inhabitants) and is full of places of interest and restaurants of international fame. It is the gastronomic capital of America and for this reason alone, one of many, it is a pleasant tourist attraction. (<http://peru.travel/>).
